NAPA VALLEY RESERVE CHARDONNAY

Crosby Roamann is a boutique winery crafting sophisticated, small production wines in Napa Valley. Our vineyard is located near San Pablo Bay, the southernmost and coolest region of Napa Valley, on a bed of sandy loam soil, which combined with our low yields, produces wines with complexity, longevity, and concentration.

Our Chardonnay is picked at dawn, when the grapes are still cool, and whole-cluster pressed and fermented on native yeast in all new French oak barrels, then aged on the lees for eighteen months.

"Delicate notes of white peach, fresh pears, and apple sauce leading to hints of shaved almonds and nutmeg. The medium bodied palate delivers pure stone-fruit and pear flavors, with a racy backbone and minerally finish."
