Pinot Noir

Jewel of Skyland

Santa Cruz Mountains AVA

Produced & Bottled by Sean W. McBride

The Jewel of Skyland is a one-acre multi-clonal vineyard of Pinot Noir on a Northeast slope off Skyland Road in the Santa Cruz Mountains. The 2018 vintage was fermented on native yeasts, with 50% whole clusters, and was pressed entirely by hand in our old hand-crank press. The wine completed malolactic fermentation naturally in barrel, and aged twelve months in French oak barrels, 25% new. We performed one racking to stainless steel one month prior to bottling, unfinned and unfiltered. Four and a half barrels; 108 cases produced.
