Pinot Noir

Filigreen Farm

The China Block

Anderson Valley, Mendocino County

Produced & Bottled by Sean W. McBride

Sourced from the biodynamically farmed Filigreen Farm in southwest Anderson Valley, our selection of Pinot Noir is surrounded by an old grove of Chinese bamboo. The 2018 vintage was fermented on native yeasts, with 50% whole clusters, and was pressed entirely by hand in our old hand-crank press. The wine completed malolactic fermentation naturally in barrel, and aged twelve months in French oak barrels, 50% new. We performed one racking to stainless steel one month prior to bottling, unfiltered and unfiltered. Four and a half barrels; 108 cases produced.
